This 1907 Craftsman home has been revitalized and reinvigorated. With the exterior stucco removed, this bungalow has had its original charming wood siding exposed. Inside there are remodeled kitchen and baths, an open living area floor plan, new windows, flooring, and fixtures throughout. The back yard is the perfect hang out spot with built-in benches surrounding a fire pit. Steps away from the Gold Line and all the shops and restaurants going into Figueroa Street. We helped our clients find their ideal home in this great neighborhood
