From the stained glass in the front windows to the wood trim and molding inside - this home is a character home lover's dream. The living room features a decorative fireplace flanked with built-in benches, windows with original diamond muntins, and dark wood paneling. The dining room, separated from the living room with built-in cabinets, continues the diamond window motif, while a built-in buffet and plate rail add classic charm. The 1911 style pairs well with modern upgrades such as central air and heat, newer water heater, and an updated electrical panel.
