

6219 St Albans, Highland Park, 90042, Highland Park

Sold! Sweet Highland Park bungalow with verdant terraced garden.

Sold! Start your Los Angeles home ownership here: a sweet cottage with everything you need tucked into a charmingly compact package. There are 2 bedrooms and one bath, plus a one-car garage that forms the base of the bonus office and rooftop deck. Imagine starting your day here, it's a perfect spot for sipping morning coffee and planning your Saturday. Next could be gardening in the terraced backyard, drinking in the heady smells of the wildflowers, roses, trees and bushes that make this a verdant, cool retreat from the cares of the city. Then saunter down to York Blvd for a shopping trip or lunch at My Taco or Amara Kitchen. It's only a few blocks down Figueroa to the Gold Line stop at Avenue 57, then you can go up to South Pasadena for shopping or wine tasting along Mission St, or down to Chinatown or Union Station and beyond. Back home, the updated kitchen is perfect for creating a home cooked meal, perhaps to enjoy al fresco. Life is so full and yet so simple here, just like you dreamed it could be!
